Dark Sky West Marin and Point Reyes Station Village Association are sponsoring a great event about the effects of light pollution on wildlife and ecosystems. We are very lucky to have Joe Mueller, Professor of biology speak on this subject. Light pollution is increasing at a rate of 10% a year and the effects are felt by more than us humans. Please come and learn about the science behind the subject and what you can do to be a part of the change. Darkskywestmarin.com
